An Act

To authorize and empower the orphans' court of Armstrong county to sell certain real estate and personal property in said county.

WHEREAS, Alexander Colwell, late of the borough of Kittanning, Armstrong county, Pennsylvania, deceased, by his last will and testament, proved the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, after sundry other bequests did, among other things, provide as follows: "Item: I give, devise and bequeath to my nephew, John A.

Colwell, who has so long been engaged with me in the Mahoning iron works, as a partner, and having exclusively managed the said works during the whole time, and to my entire satisfaction, as well for his own protection in carrying on said business as for the benefit of my two daughters, Sarah Ann Crawford and Amanda Colwell, the undivided half interest in all the following real and personal estate, the same being my entire interest in the same, in trust, nevertheless, for the purposes, uses and designs hereinafter mentioned: First—All the personal property in, about or belonging to the Mahoning iron works, or to John A. Colwell & Co., as proprietors, such as horses, mules, carts, wagons, merchandise and everything of a personal nature belonging to said firm of John A. Colwell & Co., as owners of said Mahoning iron works, at the time of my decease; and also the rest and residue remaining unsold at the time of my decease, of the following tracts of land, all situate in the county of Armstrong and state of Pennsylvania," which are fully described in said will. * * * * "And I hereby authorize and empower said John A. Colwell, as trustee, in connection with himself as partner, to carry on said furnace, or Mahoning iron works, and the making of iron at the same so long and for such a length of time as he for himself and as such trustee shall and may deem advisable and profitable; to attend to all the business of said furnace, as trustee and partner, the same as he has always done, without any disturbance or direction whatsoever from those interested in said trust estate, to the best of his judgment, skill and ability, rendering only such proper returns of the profits and proceeds thereof as hereinafter provided and required, and to and for the use of those hereinafter mentioned. * * *

And should said John A. Colwell, trustee as aforesaid, deem it advisable at any time hereafter, and for the best interests of the trust estate, as himself, to entirely abandon the manufacturing of iron or metal, at the said Mahoning iron works, for any cause, it is then my will, and he is hereby authorized and directed to do so, and to account to my two daughters, Sarah Ann Crawford and Amanda Colwell, for the rents, issues, profits and proceeds, either arising from the manufacture of iron or the sale of real or personal property:"

And whereas, Since the probate of said will circumstances have arisen that make it impossible to carry on said trust estate in accordance with the terms of said will, and the same must be terminated either in the way prescribed by the will or by the orphans' court:

And whereas, It is represented that a termination of said trust estate, by an abandonment of the manufacture of iron and the sale of the property, would entail a loss of at least ten thousand dollars to the cestui que trusts and the same to the trustee; therefore,

SECTION 1. *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That on the petition of John A.
